

STUDENT GRADUATE PROFILE 2013-2020 (Institutional Competencies)¹

1. Exhibits commitment with social development, community service, and voluntary work.
2. Builds his/her moral integrity and ethical, civics, and esthetic values based on the Catholic Church Social Doctrine.
3. Use critical and creative thinking in the development and analysis of knowledge.
4. Utilize creative techniques for problem solution and decision making.
5. Demonstrate knowledge, abilities, and skills for effective communication in different sceneries, both in Spanish and English.
6. Possess a business and global vision, as well as financial literacy that prepares for the management of his/her resources and for the development of economics, social, and cultural initiatives.
7. Demonstrate multicultural sensibility in a globalized world.
8. Knows and uses technology as a learning tool.
9. Has information literacy skills that motivates permanent learning and personal and professional growing.
10. Master the quantitative reasoning skill to managing mathematics, statistic and scientific information.
11. Demonstrates investigation skills that generate new knowledge and stimulate innovations and social actions.

¹ Approved by Junta de Síndicos on January 28, 2014

